Forum site owners Where to post press releases and news?

New on the website Best topic on Twitter Actually a subject. Will share the list of the sites where they post press releases or news. news2 and other you can not give out the nichrome is not considered rare exceptions. Search in I and G did not give adequate results... 1-2 resource. PS It is clear that if to start to dig his nose then pick up a fairly lengthy list... That's just to filter it doesn't want to. Can anyone share httpfree.miralinks.ru m Yeah as an option. But only on the unique content and do with it as a rule not very good. I need a smooth rise in Recalling the type httpwww.example.com. And the article will be reproduced. Readable but not unique. le Is really press releases. Which would be copied and copied and copied... Stupid when stealing content, citing the source. You can even not active. PS The trust has not been canceled. by the way a very hot topic I would need... Probably will have to collect myself... Long ago there were a list of sites receiving press releases about this httpadblogger.rugde-dobavit-press-reliz-service... . As far as I remember, upon closer examination it turned out that to use it will not for everyone. Very different sites where the topics are limited where a significant occasion to need. You can look in Google for add press release add article free directory, articles, etc. mainly because are garbage but for reference you can go. A year and a half ago, I tried to post articles to free directories - the results are not liked. Someone responded and posted an article the other sites a few months died. Tried to send relevant press releases on a normal theme sites without regard to the fact they have a section under press releases or not. Someone even posted. But in General it worked once piece. Similar lists on SERCO lies Nemer... But to sense something from them a little. If anyone has such a database then I don't expect it so just give up. Otherwise you will foul just like we are and the shop closed down. The whole tsimus of such services is the ability for just a couple of days with good luck to a new domain painlessly increment of 20-30 high-quality receivers. Long heard about httpwww.maketrust.ru there are press releases. If you look for reviews or he will try to use the services. The service itself looks pretty interesting. Yeah. Similarly, but something somehow was not solved yet. Users 13197 Sites to embed in the system 540 And all the 540 crap links Maybe not try... But as far as I'm aware it's not very good if you disseminate a large number of articles press releases in the Internet. Search engines begin to avoid them. httpabrahabr.ru View this resource may be suitable Can offer package When placing PR articles on the website httpnovostimira.com.ua PageRank
