

NEWSHOLDING.COM

---

Placement in the section Press releases on Корреспондент.net getting paid

Now our visitors will be able to place your press release selecting either the normal press release or giving press release the premium status. A normal press release will be placed in the shared feed of press releases. Premium press releases will be posted in the premium place in the section Press releases and preview-blocks of a partition on pages Korrespondent.biz. Upon completion user-selected period of time press release will be posted in General the ribbon section Press releases and will remain in the archive section. Website users can select the period of embed the press release in the premium place 1 day 3 day or a week. The cost of the service - Publishing press release - 500 UAH. excluding VAT. - In addition, the placement of the press release in the premium place on one day - 250 UAH. excluding VAT. - In addition, the placement of the press release in the premium place on three days - 1000 UAH. excluding VAT. - In addition, the placement of the press release on a premium location on seven days - 2000 UAH. excluding VAT. The start date of the paid press release is the date payment for the service. To pay for the service by publication of the press release can be either through the payment system Interkassa or printing in the Bank payment order website. Company can also place the press release in the news on the main page Korrespondent.biz for publicity. To take advantage of this additional service need to contact the advertising Department of the website. Корреспондент.net - Ukrainian information and news resource which is part of a larger media holding KP Media. Корреспондент.net officially started 1 September 2000. The website provides visitors with an independent and operational information about the most important the events in Ukraine and abroad as well as business news and the economy health and sports science and show business. The site has Russian and Ukrainian version updated around the clock 24 hours a day, 7 days a

Link to article:: Placement in the section Press releases on Корреспондент.net getting paid